2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		He is a popular grass roots worker having a good grip over the entire area and popular with the party workers and the local population in the area. There is only one case pending against him which is recent and trivial in nature. It is a false complaint foisted by the ruling party due to political rivalry. Thus, the Party decided to field him as its candidate.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)		There is only one recent case pending against him which is trivial in nature. It is a false complaint foisted by the ruling party due to political rivalry. Hence, the Party selected him as its candidate over any other person. The local party workers look up to him for his leadership and organizational capabilities.
