2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		He is a popular leader in the Patharpratima Assembly Constituency. There is only one case pending against him which is false and politically motivated in nature since he dared to raise his voice against the anti-poor policies of the ruling party. Majority of the local party workers in the Patharpratima A.C. look upto him for his leadership skills and are keen to have him as their representative in the Vidhan Sabha. Thus, the party deemed it fit to select him as a candidate.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)		There is only one case pending against him which is politically motivated in nature. He is highly respected and popular among the masses more particularly the youth of the Assembly constituency Patharpratima thus the party decided to select him.
