2.		The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)	He is a social activist and he is always engaged in social and political activities within the Assembly Constituency of Gosaba. He commands high reputation and respect amongst the people of Gosaba Assembly Constituency. The cases pending against him are all recent, politically motivated and trivial in nature. He is always available and approachable for the people in his constituency. The party workers of Gosaba A.C. wish that he should be their voice in the Vidhan Sabha. As such the party has considered him fit to be a candidate for Gosaba Assembly Constituency.
3.		Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)	The cases pending against him are recent, politically motivated and trivial in nature. He has been falsely implicated by the ruling party in these cases because he is a popular leader and a challenge to their anti-democratic policies. Considering his reputation and involvement with local population more particularly with the weaker sections of the society the party has considered him best amongst the others.
