He is a well- known social activist and an active political worker in the Bishnupur A.C. He has worked devotedly for the upliftment of the weaker sections of the community and for the youth. He is a hard working grassroots leader who has dedicatedly performed for the party and successfully led the party workers in serving the local population. There is only one case against him and he has been falsely implicated by the ruling party out of political rivalry. The party workers want him to be their voice in the Vidhan Sabha hence he has been chosen as a candidate.

There is only one case against him which is trivial in nature, and arising out of political vendetta. He has been associated with people of his area for local development and enjoys the support of the local electorate. Hence the party deemed it fit to select him as a candidate.
