2.		The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)	He is a social activist and very respected doctor and he is always engaged in social and political activities within the Assembly Constituency of Kasba. He is a very senior party volunteer. He commands high reputation and respect amongst the people of Kasba Assembly Constituency. The sole case pending against him is recent and politically motivated. He is always available and approachable for the people in his constituency. Keeping in view of his popularity among the local population and local party workers service to the masses, the Party decided to field him as its candidate.
3.		Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)	The case pending against him is recent and politically motivated. It is false and trivial in nature. Considering his reputation and involvement with local population more particularly with the youth and weaker sections of the society the party has considered him best amongst the others.
