2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)	He has been a socio-political activist and enjoys mass support. The cases against him has been slapped by the ruling dispensation out of political vendetta. The cases are politically motivated and he has been falsely implicated. He has actively and dedicatedly been serving the masses and he has a vast and rich experience in grass roots social work.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)	The cases against him are politically motivated. Keeping in view, his dedication and devotion to the people in the constituency, and considering the trivial nature of the cases against him, the party has preferred him over any other candidate.
