| 3. | Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words) | The cases pending against him are recent, politically motivated and trivial in nature. He has been falsely implicated by the ruling party in these cases because he is a popular leader and a challenge to their anti-democratic policies. Considering his reputation and involvement with local population more particularly with the weaker sections of the society the party has considered him best amongst the others. |
