2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)	He is a social activist and commands great respect in his Assembly Constituency. He is also a MLA. He is always engaged in bringing awareness among the public in his Constituency. The single case pending against him is politically motivated in nature. He is a victim of police atrocities as he dared to raise his voice against the anti-poor policies of the ruling party. Keeping in view of his popularity among the local population and local party workers service to the masses, the Party decided to field him as its candidate.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)	The sole case pending against him is politically motivated in nature. Keeping in view of his popularity among the local population and local party workers service to the masses, the Party decided to field him as its candidate.
