2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)	She is a Member of Parliament and a very popular public figure having served the people of West Bengal and the party since many years. She has served the party both in leadership and organizational roles and is a deserving candidate being popular with the party workers and the local population in the area. The cases against her are all arising out of political vendetta ad falsely foisted by the ruling party.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)	The cases pending against her are politically motivated. They are false complaints foisted by the ruling party due to political rivalry. Hence, the Party selected her as its candidate over any other person. The local party workers look upto her for his leadership and organizational capabilities.
