2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		He is a well-known social activist and an active political worker in the Canning Purba A.C. He has worked devotedly for the upliftment of the weaker sections of the community and for the youth. There is only one case against him and he has been falsely implicated by the ruling party out of political rivalry. The party workers want him to be their voice in the Vidhan Sabha hence he has been chosen as a candidate.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)		There is only one case against him which is trivial in nature, and arising out of political vendetta. He has been associated with people of his area for local development and enjoys the support of the local electorate. Hence the party deemed it fit to select him as a candidate.
