2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		He is a teacher and a popular representative of his constituency and worked extensively for the development of his constituency. He has been involved with a large number of social and educational organisations. There is only one pending case against him which is recent and as a result of political vendetta by the ruling party. He had protested against the death of a student in 2018. He was falsely implicated in a criminal case pertaining to the said protest and the case is purely politically motivated. He teaches poor persons in the local community for free and is associated with several social work organisations.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)		The sole case pending against him is frivolous and politically motivated, his contribution to the academic and social field is undisputable. He has built an unparalleled reputation through social and developmental work.
