2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		He is a respectable member of the society. He enjoys support of the local electorate. The cases against him are recent ones, trivial in nature, slapped on him with ulterior motive by the ruling dispensation when he was participating in a procession to protest against the killing of a close associate.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)		Keeping in view, the services being rendered by him in the constituency and considering the trivial nature of the case, the party has preferred him over any other candidate.
