2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		He is a well respected local leader and social and political activist and has done a lot for the upliftment of the weaker sections of the local community. He works actively and dedicatedly for the party and local workers. One case pending against him is a result of political vendetta as he has dared to raise his voice against the anti-poor policies of the ruling party in West Bengal. The other case pertains to cheque dishonour.
3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)		By virtue of his work for the common man and considering that the cases against him are political motivated, he has been preferred over others.
