2.	The reasons for the selection of the candidate. Selection shall be with reference to the qualifications, achievements and merit of the candidate, and not mere "winnability" at the polls (not more than 100 words)		She is a practicing Advocate and has done her Bachelor of law from Hazra Law college, University of Calcutta,2007, and done her Master's in Business Administration from Assumption University, Thailand in 2009 also, she is a respectable member of the society and is very popular amongst the local population and enjoys support of the local electorate. The cases pending against her are recent and false, slapped on her with ulterior motive by the ruling dispensation due to political rivalry, beside this she is a women right activist and raised her voice from time to time against all kinds of injustice & corrupt practice of the government.

3.	Reasons as to why other individuals without criminal antecedents could not be selected as candidates (not more than 100 words)	The two cases pending against her are frivolous and politically motivated, her contribution to the social field is undisputable. She has built an unparalleled reputation through social and developmental work.
